Land Acknowledgement

As an institution dedicated to our Jesuit values, Georgetown University recognizes that the land we currently occupy was and still is the homeland of the Nacotchtank and their descendants, the Piscataway Conoy people. We acknowledge that these peoples and many others were forcefully removed and that this University’s occupation is fundamentally tied to colonial development. We acknowledge that the consequences of this removal continue to affect these Indigenous communities. We offer our gratitude for the land and her people as we learn, teach, work, and commune.

This University celebrates the resilience, strength, and enduring presence of Indigenous people demonstrated around the world. We are committed to supporting the Indigenous members of our community as we educate ourselves on Indigenous histories, cultures, and issues. This is a reflection of our commitment to the values of People for Others as we form our Community in Diversity.

Children’s Equity Project

National initiative housed at Arizona State University, targeted at building equitable child serving systems that include:

- Equitable access to services
- Experiences that are positive and fair
- Outcomes that are not associated with demographic characteristics

Research - Policy - Practice
Equity Chat Series

... provide a forum to further dialogue on equity topics to support more equitable systems and strengthen culturally responsive IECMHC practices in order to reduce disparities and improve child outcomes.
Holding a Reflective Space

- Maintain a reflective and learning stance.
- Learn and speak your truth and how your truth affects your work in IECMHC.
- Expect and accept non-closure.

Today’s Session Goals

- Examine the role of the consultant in supporting equity in IECMHC.
- Introduce the revised IECMHC Competency 2 that centers equity in consultation.
- Share and discuss ways to begin to support more equitable systems and strengthen culturally responsive IECMHC practices to reduce disparities and improve child outcomes.
Agenda

• Framing our dialogue around a shared understanding on issues of equity.
• Exploring “the why?” behind the revision of the IECHMC competences and introducing Competency 2
• Small group breakouts on advancing equity in our work with practitioners, children, and families.
• Sharing resources to support the work of equity in IECMHC

Framing Our Dialogue
What does equity mean to you?

Equity

“The state that would be achieved if individuals fared the same way in society regardless of race, gender, class, language, disability, or any other social or cultural characteristic.

NAEYC Advancing Equity in Early Childhood Education Equity Position Statement, 2020
“To show that there is inequity, but not why there is inequity leaves too much open to interpretation. The reality is that we live in a racially structured society. That is what causes inequity.”

Why were the competencies revised?

Center of Excellence for Infant and Early Childhood Mental Health Consultation Competencies
Recognize that….

- Principles of equity and antiracism should be integrated not an add on.
- IECMHC is well positioned to disrupt racism, bias, and other forms of marginalization in the settings in which we consult.
- Research shows that IECMHC can reduce racial and gender disparities, by supporting the adults and systems that make decisions about children (Shivers, Farago, & Gal-Szabo 2021).
2A. Understands the Multidisciplinary Body of Knowledge that Informs Consultation

2A.3. Understands mental health concepts and psychological processes related to adults and adult functioning, including how caregivers’ current and historical access to opportunities and resources and their experiences with discrimination impact mental health. Understands parallel process (i.e., how relationships between an IECMH consultant and staff or caregivers impacts relationships between staff or caregivers and infants, young children, and families), the ways in which a caregiver’s experiences can affect their interpretation of an infant’s or young child’s behavior, and experiences with or responses to trauma.
2A. Understands the Multidisciplinary Body of Knowledge that Informs Consultation

2A.8. Has broad knowledge of culturally responsive social and emotional curricula, screening tools, frameworks, and resources, and understands equitable implementation of such curricula and tools.

What culturally responsive social emotional screening tools, curriculum, and or frameworks do you use in your work? Enter your response in Mentimeter: https://www.menti.com/991b7h87ww

2B. Understands the Nature of and Influences on Development
2C. Understands the Importance and Power of Culture

2C.1. Understands and supports cultural variations in development, child-rearing practices, and caregiver expectations

2D. Understands the Importance of Self-Awareness and the Nature of Reflective Practice

2D.3. Understands the importance of assisting others in reflecting on and examining their own values, beliefs, privileges, biases, assumptions, and experiences; supporting them in regulating their emotions; and helping them accurately perceive the meaning of others’ behavior (specifically, the behavior of infants, young children, families, and coworkers).
Small Group Chat

In your small group:
- Introduce yourselves.
- Identify a recorder and reporter.
- Share your feedback on the following questions:
